

planning policy@bathnes.gov.uk 01225 477548

www.bathnes.gov.uk

Application to Designate a Neighbourhood Forum and Area (in the City of Bath) Localism Act 2011

Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012

Please Note: Before completing this application, all groups are urged to consult Bath & North East Somerset's Neighbourhood Planning Protocol (available online and from the One-Stop-Shop on Manvers Street, Bath). This document sets out the purpose of and procedure for designating a neighbourhood area and drafting a neighbourhood plan or neighbourhood development order. It is important that you read this guidance as incorrect completion will delay the processing of your application.

Please note that all the information provided on this application form and in supporting documents will be published on the Authority's website. If you require any assistance, advice or clarification, please contact the Planning Policy team.

[Please write in block capitals and black ink]

1) Nam e of Proposed Neighbourhood Forum
2) NameofPro	posed Neighbourhood Area
3) Lead Memb	erContactDetails
Title:	FirstNam e:	Sumam e:
Address1:
Address 2:
Address 3:
Town:
County:
Postcode:
Daytim e Num ber:
Mobile Number:
Em ail:
4) FullM em bership Please provide a listofotherneighbourhood forum members (minimum of 21 members required)
Name:		Em ail:		Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:		Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:		Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:		Phone:

5) FullM em bership (continued) Please provide a listofotherneighbourhood forum members (minimum of 21 members required)
Nam e:		Em all:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:		Em ail:	Phone:
		Em ail:	Phone:
Nam e:
6)	ExtentofArea to be covered by Neighbor Please briefly describe the neighbourhood appropriate (150 wordsmax)	outhood Forum od area proposed and why you consider the ex	tentofthe area is
7)	Please briefly describe the neighbourhood appropriate (150 wordsmax)	od aæa propoæd and why you consider the ex	tentofthe area is
7)	Please briefly describe the neighbourhood appropriate (150 wordsmax)	nbourhood to be a BusinessNeighbourhood?	tentofthe area is

8) Intention of Neighbourhood Area Please indicate which of the following you intend to undertake within your neighbourhood area.
Neighbourhood Developm entPlan:
Neighbourhood Developm ent0 rder.
Com m unity Rightto Build Order:
 9) Application Statem ent Please provide a briefstatem ent (500 wordsmax) describing: The early aim sand objectives for the proposed Neighbourhood Forum How the proposed Neighbourhood Forum meets the national regulations The anticipated working methods for the Neighbourhood Forum Detailsofany sources of funding you have identified to assist in drafting any neighbourhood plan or neighbourhood development order

If we hereby apply to designate a neighbourhood form and area as described on this firm and the accompanying plan. In addition, If we: 1) Acknowledge the provision of the briery Act 2010, section 3 2) Confirm shatther forms provides in public in each beathy and since head by organize townserpresenting note than a third of its membership 3) Confirm shatther forms provides in public in each beathy and since head by organize townserpresenting note than a third of its membership 3) Confirm shatther forms provides in public and an activation of the public in accordance of the public in accordance of public in a continuous species of the public in accordance of the each shad continuous and several to the control of the public in accordance of the entity boundood forms as a sked Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forms s Resential 1) A single point of contact should be non instead for the Forms which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available. This contact should be a public by a symbol wheeling. 2) A like this bourhood Forms school if he is an open Annual General Meeting. 3) A gendarshould be prepared form entity of the public who forms and the meetings school in the propagated form entity and an accordance with existing animogen ents for Farain Councils. 4) Men beath of the public may submit statements that to be issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues providing sufficient advance nother laylor. These should be able the form the total point of contact for the Forms. 5) Meeting should be of the lead the amangements for this are but to the forms to decide. 6) Any financial contabuthors the Forms from third pairties number decided. 7) Porms are such eyes in any submit to be determined but by councilly meeting and provided and attention should be given to involving organized and a section of the Forms. 1) A forms we happe a federable. 1) A forms we happe a federable. 1) A forms we happe a federable. 2) The flequency of the eetings of the Forms into the determin
Described on this bow and the accompanying plan. 1 Addion.I/we: 1) Acknowing the provision of the Bribery Act2010, section 3 1) Confine statche from provides for public membership and snothed by oganizations representing more than a third of its membership and snothed by oganizations representing more than a third of its membership and snothed by oganizations representing more than a third of its membership and provided from the common should be supposed by the state of the stat	10) Declaration	n
1) Acknowledge the provision of the Bribery Act 2010, section 3 2) Confine shat the Forum provides for public men beach pand innot lead by organism to these presenting more than a third of the men beach pand and provides for public men beach pand for the spinbourhood Forum sizes be bow.) 3) The full dea hand copy of the neighbourhood forum 'swritten constitution 4) The dea hand copy of the neighbourhood forum 'swritten constitution 5) The fulde an and copy of the neighbourhood forum 'swritten constitution 6) The fulde an and finance survey map with the proposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area marked Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forum s Exceptibl 1) A single point of contact should be now instead for the Forum which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available to the public haccordance with existing around entities of the propared for me ectings of the full contact for the public may alm his stem ents that hat to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other successful and public may alm his stem ents that hat to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other successful and public may alm his stem ents that hat to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other successful and public may alm his stem ents that hat to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other successful and public may alm his stem ents that hat to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other successful and the successful and to the non-hated point of contact for the Forum. 8) Meet they should be challed; the arrangements for this are before from the decide. 9) Forum so unshed on the special to potential concerns about the tractivities—any such complaint of the forum. 1) A financial contributions the Forum is to be determined beatly, Quarterly meetings are suggested as an init um. 1) The frequency o
2) Confine that the Forum provides bryublin membership and isnot had by outpainst those presenting more than a third of its membership 3) Confine that the Forum is not dependent upon any one interest group for finding 4) Agarest and have signed up to the Council's Code of Conduct for the jubious mood Forum is (see below) 5) Relide a hard copy of the neighbourhood forum is written constitution 6) Relide a nord in ance survey map with the purposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area may as with the purposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area may as with the purposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area may as with the purposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area may as well be kept up to date. 2) A line inhourhood Forum should be nom hated for the Forum which must be provided to the Counciland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) A line inhourhood Forum should hold an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be purpained for meetings of the jubiourhood forum sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public haccordance with existing amongements for Parish Councils. 4) Members of the public may submirist atom ents that the to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance nother is given. These should be submired to the nominated point for contact for the Forum. 5) Meetings should be challed, the amangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial location the forther form from third parties must be declared. 7) Forum smutche open to respond to potential locates as a minute may be declared. 8) He financial location the form from the decide and attention should be given to involving considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. 9) The financial location are being softened by the councilier-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 1) A breach of this Code of Conductor ay lead to the Counci	h add ito	n,I/we:
mem bestship 3) Confirm shat the Forum is not dependent upon any one interest group brinding 4) A greent and have signed up to the Council's Code of Conduct Enth eighbourhood forum s (see bebw) 5) Inclide a hard copy of the neighbourhood forum 's written constitution 6) Inclide an ordinance survey map with the proposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area marked Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forum s Essential 1) A single point of contact should be nominated for the Forum which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) All Neighbourhood Forum should had an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared for meetings of Neighbourhood Forum sand the meeting should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing arrangements for Parish Councils. 4) Membersof the public may submit statum ents that the to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other stress, providing at fifte intradvance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of forum catherine forum. 5) Meetings should be chaired; the arrangements for this are should be submitted to the nominated point of forum catherine to the forum from third parties must be declined. 7) Forum smusche open to impoind to promitiate concerns about the factivities—any such complaints' constituent to be justified may lead to a seview of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Roum webpage is desirable. 1) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boatly. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 1) Indicate by that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equal his groups and young people in the Forum. 4) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council seconstilering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision willow made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both th group brininding 4) A presets and have signed up to the Councils Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forms (see be bw) 5) Inclide a hard copy of the neighbourhood form 'swritten constitution 6) Inclide a nordinance survey map with the proposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area marked Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forms s Essential 1) A single point of contact should be norminated for the Forms which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) A INC high bourhood Forms should held an open Annual Seneral Meeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared form estings of Neighbourhood Forms sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing a mangements for Parkin Councils. 4) Members of the public may submit statements that he be to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing as ifficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forms. 5) Meetings should be chaind; the arrangements for this are left to the Form to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Form from thist parkies uit be declared. 7) Forms must be open to prepond to potential concerns about the lactivities—any such complaints if constitered to be justfied may lead to a service of the designation of the form. Desimable 1) A Form webpage indestable. 2) The finquency of meethings of the Forms is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Form. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Form. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainat and the Form. 3) Where issues can be satisfacturity mest lead to the d by Neighbourhood Forum sizes be buy) 5 he hade a hard copy of the neighbourhood forum 'swritten constitution 6) he hade a not in ance survey map with the proposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area marked Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forum s Essential 1) A single point of contact should be nom hated for the Forum which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) All Neighbourhood Forum should hold an open Annual Cenemi M eeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared form eetings of Neighbourhood Forum sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in a coordance with existing arrangements for Parish Councils. 4) Mem besofther public may splan is taken ents that we have been been publicly available to the public in a coordance with existing arrangements for Parish Councils. 5) Meetings should be chaised; the arrangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from this parises must be declared. 7) Forum smust be open to mayond to potential concerns about the fractivities—any such complaints considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Forum we bigage idestable. 1) A Forum we bigage idestable in the Forum is to be determined be ally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 4) Review Process 1) A beach of this code of Conduct may lead to the Counciline-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bigged to re-designate the Forum and thiswould be considered on Isown merits.
Constitution 6) Include an ordinance surveymap with the purposed boundaries of the neighbourhood area marked Code of Conductfor Neighbourhood Forums Essential 1) A single point of contact should be nominated for the Forum which must be provided to the Counciland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) All Neighbourhood Forum should hold an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be purpared for meetings of Neighbourhood Forum sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing attaining ments for Parkh Councils. 4) Members of the public may submission the statements that the late to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing a ifficient advance notice figiven. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meetings should be chained, the arrangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any fhanch lond thout house the Forum from thid parties must be declained. 7) Forum smust be open to sepond to potential concerns about the fact this - any such complaints for considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boatly. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) List desirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A besach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Counciline considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bedged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own meets.	forNe	ghbourhood Forum s (see be bw)
Code of Conduct for Neighbourhood Forum s Essential 1) A single point of contact should be nominated for the Forum which must be provided to the Councilland made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) A like high bourhood Forum should hold an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared form eetings of Neighbourhood Forum sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing arrangements for Parish Councils. 4) Members of the public may submits a tements that he had to be subset that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meetings should be chaired, the arrangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from thid parties must be declated. 7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about the kractivities—any such complaints if considered to be justified may had to a review of the designation of the forum. Desimble 1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The fiequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined botally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) Lindesirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Councilize-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum early. 4) A new application would then need to be bidged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on isown merits.		5) Include a hard copy of the neighbourhood forum 'swritten Essential 1) A single point of contact should be nom in a ted for the Forum which must be provided to the Council and made publicly available. This contact should be kept up to date. 2) All Neighbourhood Forum should hold an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared form eetings of Neighbourhood Forum sand the meeting should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing arrangements for Fatch Councils. 4) Members of the public may submit statements that relate to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meetings should be chaired; the arrangements for this are left to the Forum to decile. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from third partiss must be declared. 7) Forum smust be open to be good to potential concerns about the ractivities—any such complaints if considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desimble 1) A Forum webpage is desimble. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minum. 3) Lis desimble that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bedged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.
publicly available. This contact should be keptup to date. 2) All Neighbourhood Forum should hold an open Annual General Meeting. 3) Agendas should be prepared forme ectings of the giphourhood Forum sand the meetings should be minuted, both agendas and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing a mangements for Parish Councis. 4) Members of the public may submits a terments that me have to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meeting should be chaised; the amangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from third parties must be declared. 7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about the ractivities—any such complaints if considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desimable 1) A Forum webpage is desimable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) It is desimable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council re-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bidged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.		tforNeighbourhood Forum s
2) AllNeighbourhood Forum schould hold an open AnnualGeneralMeeting. 3) Agendasshould be prepared form eetingsofNeighbourhood Forum sand the meetingschould be minuted, both agendaschould be materials and minutes should be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing a mangements for Parish Councis. 4) Membersofthe public may submit statements that the best is sues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meetingschould be chaized; the amangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from third parties must be declated. 7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about the ractivities – any such complaints if considered to be justified may had to a review of the designation of the forum. Desimable 1) A Forum webpage is desimable. 2) The fiequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boatly. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) It is desimable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may had to the Council re-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorly resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bedged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.	1) Asingle p		be provided to	the Counciland made
4) Members of the public may submitstatements that we have to issues that are on the agenda for the meeting or any other issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should be submitted to the nominated point of contact for the Forum. 5) Meetings should be chaired; the arrangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from third parties must be declared. 7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about their activities—any such complaints if considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) It is desirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council re-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be biged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.	 All Neighbourhood Forum schould hold an open Annual General Meeting. Agendaschould be prepared form eetingsof Neighbourhood Forum sand the meetingschould be minuted, both agendasand minuteschould be made publicly available to the public in accordance with existing
5) Meethgs should be chaired; the amangements for this are left to the Forum to decide. 6) Any financial contributions to the Forum from third parties must be dechred. 7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about the 'ractivities - any such complaints if considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boatly. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) Lis desirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council re-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bedged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.	anyother	issues, providing sufficient advance notice is given. These should	_
7) Forum smustbe open to respond to potential concernsabout the ractivities - any such complaints if considered to be justified may lead to a review of the designation of the forum. Desirable 1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a min um. 3) Lis desirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on isown merits. Date	5) Meetings	should be chaimed; the amangem ents for this ame left to the Form
1) A Forum webpage is desirable. 2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a min um. 3) Lis desirable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum and the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on isown merits. Date	7) Forum smust be open to respond to potential concerns about their activities - any such complaints if
2) The frequency of meetings of the Forum is to be determined boally. Quarterly meetings are suggested as a minimum. 3) Lisdes habe that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council re-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.	Desimable
3) Lisdesimable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving equalities groups and young people in the Forum. 4) Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Councilre-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits.	2) The freque		nterlym eetings	ane suggested as a
Review Process 1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Council me-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits. Date	3) It is desimable that a range of people from the area are represented and attention should be given to involving Forum. 2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant and the Forum. 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits. Names	4) and the Forum . 3) Where issues can be satisfactorily resolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum . 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits. Names	1) A breach of this Code of Conduct may lead to the Councilre-considering the designation of a Neighbourhood
Forum as a designated Neighbourhood Forum. 4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on its own merits. Names	2) A decision will be made on a case by case basis, on the basis of evidence presented by both the complainant its own merits. Names Date	3) Where issues can be satisfactorily nesolved this will be preferable to further action such as the suspension of the
	4) A new application would then need to be bdged to re-designate the Forum and this would be considered on
	Nam es		Date		