No live music after 23.30 hours.

---

ANNEX B

Annex 3 – Conditions attached after a hearing by the licensing authority to consider interim steps on 23 April 2014

CCTV shall be installed to the satisfaction of the police and maintained in good working order. All cameras shall record continuously during trading hours and for one hour afterwards. The time and date shall be displayed on the recordings. Recordings shall be maintained for a period of 31 days and made available to the police or licensing authority for evidential purposes on request. If the CCTV equipment fails, the police and licensing authority must be informed as soon as possible and immediate steps shall be taken to effect a repair. A notice shall be displayed at the entrance to the premises advising that CCTV is in operation.

There shall be 2 SIA registered door supervisors on duty, from opening time until closing time, when the premises are open to the public and 2 other members of staff shall also be on duty. During these times one shall be female.

Checks will be made of the male and female toilets on the premises every 15 minutes by door supervisors or other members of staff while the premises are open, a written record of such checks will be maintained at the premises and will contain the name of person carrying out such checks. This record will be available to the police and licensing authority on request.

A register will be kept on the premises showing the full name, full SIA badge number, time on duty and time off duty of each door supervisor. The register will be retained for 12 months and made immediately available for inspection to the police or licensing authority.

An incident book shall be maintained at the premises with all incidents of crime and disorder and any ejections by door supervisors shall be recorded. The incident book shall be completed on a daily basis regardless of whether any incidents have taken place. The incident book shall be retained on completion for 12 months and shall be made available to the police and licensing authority.

A personal licence holder shall be at the premises during all opening hours.

All staff will be regularly trained in matters concerning illegal drug use and sale of alcohol and records kept of such training. The records will be made available to the police or licensing authority on request.

All persons entering the premises will be searched for drugs, weapons or other illegal items on entry or re-entry.
