It was proposed by Councillor Kevin Guy, seconded by Councillor Robin Moss, supported by Councillors Shaun Hughes, Sam Ross and Tim Warren and

7 TO ANNOUNCE ANY URGENT BUSINESS AGREED BY THE CHAIR

There were no items of urgent business.

8 URGENT DECISION BY CHIEF EXECUTIVE - ENTRY HILL DEPOT CALL-IN VALIDATION

Council noted the urgent decision that had been taken by the Chief Executive on 25th April 2023 to suspend the normal requirements on timing for the period in which a call-in meeting must normally be held, as the call-in had been received very close to the 4th May election, the issue was deemed too sensitive to be considered in the week leading to the election and no constituted Panels would be in place until after this Council AGM on 25th May 2023.

9 NOTIFICATION OF MEMBERS ELECTED ON 4TH MAY 2023

This item was noted.

10 APPOINTMENT OF LEADER

On a motion from Councillor Sarah Warren, seconded by Councillor Michelle O'Doherty, it was RESOLVED that Councillor Kevin Guy be elected Leader of the Council for the 4 year term from May 2023 AGM to May 2027 AGM.

[Notes;

1. The above successful resolution was carried with 49 Councillors voting in favour, 2 Councillors abstaining and 0 Councillors voting against.]

11 APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES AND PANELS, AND OTHER ANNUAL BUSINESS

On a motion from Councillor Kevin Guy, seconded by Councillor Robin Moss, it was

RESOLVED to

1. Approve a structure for non-executive and regulatory decision making, and the scrutiny function as set out in the Constitution and as circulated to all Councillors in advance of the meeting (and appended to the minutes);
2. Approve the terms of reference for Committees and Panels etc as set out in Appendix 2 to the report and constitute those bodies accordingly;

3. Approve the appointment of Members to the Committees and Panels in accordance with the requirements of political proportionality and the nominations made by the political groups (whilst noting the non-proportional basis of operating for the Licensing Sub-Committee as explained in paragraph 3.10 of the report);
4. Appoint as Chairs of such bodies, those Councillors as may from time to time be nominated by the political group to whom the chairmanship of the body is allocated;
5. Authorise the Monitoring Officer to fill any casual vacancies in membership of all the bodies constituted and vacancy in the office of Chair of such bodies in accordance with the wishes of the political groups and the allocation of chairing entitlements made at this meeting;

7. Expressly disapply the proportionality rule to the Restructuring Implementation Committee (with no Councillor voting against), as set out in section 3.9 of the report;
8. Confirm that the chairing arrangement for the Standards committee set out in paragraph 3.11 of the report should continue (with an independent member taking the chair);
9. Agree to defer consideration of allocation of Political Assistants until the outcome of the Paulton election is known, and therefore confirm existing appointments until then, on an interim basis;
10. Appoint 3 members to Avon Fire Authority on a proportionality basis to be determined;
11. Note, in light of the decision taken earlier on the agenda to appoint a Leader, that the Leader will publish in due course, a scheme of delegation of executive functions;
12. Note the urgent executive decisions that have been taken in the last municipal year, as set out in paragraph 5.3 of the report;
13. Note the position regarding the frequency of meetings (as set out in Section 6 of the report) as the basis for enabling the diary of meetings to be prepared, including a date of 16th May 2024 for the May Council AGM, and to authorise the Monitoring Officer to project dates forward and prepare the diary on this basis;
14. Re-appoint the existing Independent Remuneration Panel (IRP);

15. Instruct the Independent Remuneration Panel to consider a Special Responsibility Allowance for the Cabinet Project Lead role, using the Job Description at Appendix 4 of the report;
16. Note the activity of the Member Advocates, as set out in Appendix 3 of the report;
17. Instruct the Monitoring Officer, in consultation with Group Leaders, to make appointments on non-executive outside bodies and note that the Leader or Cabinet Members will do so for executive outside bodies;
18. Confirm the scheme of delegations, previously agreed at Council, as set out at Part 2 of the Constitution; and
19. Authorise the Monitoring Officer to make and publicise any amendment to the Council's Constitution required, or take any other necessary action, as a result of decisions taken at this meeting on this and other reports within the agenda, or otherwise as required by law.

[Notes;

1. The above successful resolution was carried with 49 Councillors voting in favour, 2 Councillors abstaining and no Councillors voting against.
2. During debate, Councillor Jackson queried whether SACRE should be included in the proportionality table and it was agreed this issue would be resolved outside the meeting.]

12 PLEDGE TO CHILDREN IN CARE

Councillor Paul May moved this item, making reference to a slightly revised Pledge document which had been circulated to all Councillors (and is attached to these minutes). The amended wording is the second bullet point of the 'Your Care plan' section and set out below;

- ✓ "Your Care Plan will consider your age, gender identity, sexual orientation, disabled or non-disabled status, religion or beliefs, ethnicity and cultural needs"

In seconding the item, Councillor Dine Romero drew Members' attention to section 5.7 of the report, stating that it should refer to all Councillors, and not just Cabinet Members.

It was then unanimously

RESOLVED to approve the Bath and North East Somerset Council Pledge to Children and Young People in Care and Care Leavers.

13 QUESTIONS, STATEMENTS AND PETITIONS FROM THE PUBLIC

Statements were made by the following members of the public;

Chad Allen made a statement calling on the Council to take action to remove English ivy from the trees in its area, as it was harmful to the tree population and affected the tree's ability to filter clean air. He explained it was not a native species, having been introduced into the country in the 18th century.

Adam Reynolds made a statement calling for the pace of activity in delivering public realm improvements to be accelerated. The statement is attached in full. Councillor Saskia Heijltjes asked Mr Reynolds if he was clear about the guidance for liveable neighbourhoods, and what they could deliver. Mr Reynolds responded that he understood hard measures needed to be in place before softer measures could be introduced.

Mrs Harrington presented a petition of nearly 500 signatures with the following request, and spoke in support;

"We, the undersigned residents of Bath and North East Somerset, and/or regular users of the supported bus services from neighbouring villages in Somerset, petition the authority to reconsider its decision to withdraw the subsidy for the 82 Tynning, Radstock-Paulton via Westfield and Paulton Hospital services and find means of funding it, and to restore the 42 Odd Down to the RUH.

Because

- The elderly, disabled and those on low incomes are disproportionately affected, and have no alternatives so will be condemned to loneliness and isolation.*
- School children will not be able to travel independently to Midsomer Norton secondary schools.*
- Waiting for the no 4 (RUH) often means ill people standing for 20-30 minutes due to jams in Weston.*
- NE Somerset residents are being discriminated against.*
- There is a climate emergency. Using public transport reduce B&NES carbon footprint."*

Councillor Kevin Guy asked if Mrs Harrington was aware that the WECA Mayor was responsible for bus transport, not the Council. Mrs Harrington responded that the WECA Mayor had said that it was the Council, not WECA, who were responsible. Councillor Sam Ross asked Mrs Harrington if she was aware that WECA had asked all its constituent councils to increase their bus subsidy budgets. Mrs Harrington responded that locals would not mind paying towards this.

David Redgewell made a statement about various transport issues, including suggestions for addressing rural bus issues, and urged all parties to address this quickly by working together to find solutions. A copy of the statement has been placed on the Minute book. Councillor Kevin Guy asked if Mr Redgewell considered that, if BSIP money for these services is not provided, B&NES should advocate that it comes directly to the Council, as in North Somerset. Mr Redgewell responded that it was necessary to check the regulations and go through the proper processes. Councillor Saskia Heijltjes asked if Mr Redgewell was aware of an article regarding demand responsive transport likely failing if supported bus services were removed. Mr Redgewell replied that he was aware, and made the wider point that it was about connecting people, places and communities and that he was worried about parts of the region.

Alexander Robinson, SU President for the University of Bath, made a statement about further developing the civic relationship between the Council, students and education providers and gave the example of Nottingham who had developed a Student Living Strategy. The statement is attached. Councillor Kevin Guy asked if Mr Robinson would be happy to meet up, to which he replied that he would. Councillor Saskia Heijltjes asked how the Council could better support students to which he replied that active engagement was good. The campaign to encourage students to vote had been good, and this needed to continue with possible surgeries and events at the University.

Robbie Bentley made a statement highlighting the mental health aspects which needed consideration with regard to the public transport issues raised by earlier speakers. He urged collaboration with WECA and the Leaders of other Councils to provide solutions.

The Chair thanked all the speakers for their statements, which were referred to the relevant Cabinet Members.

14 QUESTIONS, STATEMENTS AND PETITIONS FROM COUNCILLORS

Councillor Eleanor Jackson made a statement about rural community bus services, a copy of which has been added to the Minute book and attached to the online record.

Councillor Saskia Heijltjes made a statement about effective scrutiny and the Green Party group's aspiration to be more involved in this vital part of the Council's decision making processes. A copy of the statement has been added to the Minute book and attached to the online record. Councillor Kevin Guy asked if her group would re-consider the offer of a place on the Corporate Audit Committee, which played an important role in scrutinising the Council's financial and governance position. Councillor Heijltjes replied that she would take this back to the group.

Councillor Sam Ross made a statement calling for collaborative working across the political groups and expressing regret that they had not been consulted earlier during the allocation of committee and panel places. A copy of the statement has been added to the Minute book and attached to the online record. As a North East Somerset Councillor, she highlighted that for small communities such as the one she represents, often needs are higher but investment is lower leading to inequity of provision. Councillor Kevin Guy asked Councillor Ross if she was aware that committees and panels were established on a proportional system. Councillor Ross replied that she was aware, as had been made clear by her statement. Councillor Karen Walker asked if Councillor Ross was aware that all councillors can make statements at PDS panel meetings, to which Councillor Ross replied that she was.

The Chair thanked the Councillors for their statements which will be addressed by the relevant Cabinet Members.

The meeting ended at 7.51 pm

27 years ago in 1996, the Bath Cycling Campaign had its inaugural meeting. Over decades the campaign has evolved and changed and now, as Walk Ride Bath, champions walking, wheeling, and cycling. We are in it for the long haul because it's what we believe in.

We have helped and supported the council in delivering millions in public realm improvements, from simple things like making paths more accessible, through to working with officers to bid for and win funding for new projects. Some of this is nationally and internationally recognised and celebrated. Walk Ride Bath will always be a patient critical friend to the council and we want to lend out knowledge, skills and experience if you will allow us to do so. We want to see you succeed but we do not want to see weak schemes that do not enable walking, wheeling, and cycling, and these days, neither does Active Travel England.

Today I want to talk about time. How long it takes to get things done. From conception to opening, the Two Tunnels Greenway took SEVEN years. The Quays Bridge took EIGHT years. Scholars Way was proposed SEVEN years ago and probably will take at least TEN to deliver. The Bath and Bristol Railway Path: Bath extension was proposed SIX years ago and Walk Ride Bath has been diligently engaging with developers along the route to ensure they make provision for active travel corridors for this game changing project which will yet likely take another FIVE years to fully deliver. Since last year we have been encouraging your officers to engage with Wessex Water to ensure a new Sewage Works Bridge can be used as part of a new route connecting the Bath to Bristol Railway path at Saltford to Kelston and Swineford. Hopefully that will be built within the next FIVE years. Not much happens very quickly.

And when it comes to the West of England Combined Authority £6m Liveable Neighbourhoods programme, you have at most FOUR years to spend the money available from the City Region Sustainable Transport Settlement. Realistically you should be looking to spend it in under THREE years. That's a big problem for this council given the conditions that the Metro Mayor has placed upon the programme and the current design outputs of some community workshops not meeting those conditions. If I was a North East Somerset councillor wanting to make a real difference to my community through the Liveable Neighbourhood programme, I'd be working with residents associations, parish councils, and local community groups to come up with fast track schemes that can be trialled and consulted on using Experimental Traffic Regulation Orders. For Bath councillors, I suggest you urgently need the city's Circulation Plan to be published. The circulation plan is the skeleton road network which will enable you to identify the areas where you can spend available money quickly and effectively.

Most importantly if you don't agree with the Metro Mayor's Liveable Neighbourhood programme conditions, make it clear. It gives those councillors that do buy into it even more money to get more done.

Good luck. The clock is ticking - and we may already be running out of time.

Students as Residents of the City of Bath - Developing the civic relationship between B&NES, Students and Education Providers

Dear Council,

I am speaking today as the outgoing President of the Students' Union at the University of Bath. I come in support of the tens of thousands of Student Residents that live within Bath and North East Somerset and make up roughly one third of the population of the City of Bath.

Students contribute significantly to the local economy in Bath, through spending in local businesses, renting, working or in the cultural capital that makes Bath a vibrant place to live.

The Student Community Partnership (SCP) exists as bridge between the Educational Institutions, their Students' Unions, and the Local Authority in Bath. They campaign for good neighbourly relations, safety, sustainability and other aspects of community awareness through campaigns, events, and volunteering. I pay thanks to a number of councillors who engage with their partnership and support its work.

I do, however, believe that there is more that our Universities and the Council should be doing together to improve the experience that all residents have in Bath by listening to the needs of the student population.

One example is how The Universities in Nottingham and their city council have come together to develop a Student Living Strategy, the first priority being to improve 'quality, safety, affordability and location of accommodation and promoting growth in affordable options across the city'.

All residents here in Bath and North East Somerset would benefit greatly from this type of collaboration. At the moment, both Universities find themselves renting buildings from private companies through nominations agreements in order to house students in the city – often at high rates which are passed on to students, for example with the new Centurion house, the cricket ground development, single rooms are priced at £220 per week, (£11k a year). In the private sector over the road, rooms start at £330 a week, (£17k a year). In addition, modelling of the bed-stock capacity across HMOs taking into account both all student residents and the wider population of the city, could help us to better understand how the city should respond to calls for more and better affordable housing for all.

A collaborative approach between universities and the local authority could help to challenge the status quo. Would the council be willing to look at Nottingham's work and consider forming a group to work on something similar?

More generally, what will this session of council do differently to previous councils to engage with its student residents and ensure that meaningful conversations and consultations occur for the benefit of all residents of Bath and North East Somerset?

Thank you

Thank you very much for allowing me to speak tonight on the contentious issue of rural community bus services. As Jesus said, 'The last shall be first, and the first shall be last'. He was not talking about First buses, but about how the marginalised, the poor and downtrodden and the disabled would take precedence over rich and powerful. Tonight Mrs Harrington has spoken up for those who need a bus service in Westfield – the last ward in B&NES, but where the parish council stands up for all its residents to get them a better deal.

The merits of the 82 bus service, the 768 sublime scenic drive through Clandown, Camerton, Timsbury, Englishcombe and so on, and the 42 hospital service have been debated extensively. We are all aware, after Mental Health Week last week, of the problems of isolation, loneliness, and depression, but there are also too many hilly areas around here where walking with a pram or a wheelchair is simply not practical, even if the pavements were wide enough, and not pothole ridden. We are all, I hope, aware of the Climate Emergency. A modern, reliable bus service, properly marketed, is the antidote. Here's the plan.

Firstly, we need to talk to the CEO of Libre Buses and the other companies delivering community subsidised services to see how they could be made profitable. Surely 140+ passengers a day would be. Secondly, myth-busting. The problem is not driver shortage, the drivers tell me. It is the rotas and working conditions, that make them leave.

Thirdly, we need urgent action from the relevant scrutiny panel to set up a working party, and maybe hold a scrutiny 'open day' like the climate change day. A review of transport policy is urgently needed, and now, at the beginning of a four year term, is the right time. We need long term, sustainable policies. My proposal is for an SPD, like the SPD for the provision of affordable housing, that will mean that any developer of more than 10 residences has to provide a set percentage of their value, instead of there being ad hoc decisions, and derisory sums.

The other possibility would be to investigate business support. The 82 was originally established with S106 money from Tesco. We believe from informal contact that Tesco, other businesses and health services might contribute. Having people wholly dependant on shopping on line will impact their sales and services.

All this will take time. May I suggest the Leader of the Council look in his 'back pocket', and find enough from the contingency reserves to keep our buses running for another three months, or even wring some 'levelling up' money out. This might even scotch the NES belief that Bath gets all the goodies under this administration.

Saskia Heijltjes statement

The role that overview and scrutiny can play in holding an authority's decision-makers to account makes it fundamentally important to the successful functioning of local democracy."

This quote taken from the foreword of the government report 'Overview and scrutiny: statutory guidance for councils and combined authorities' published in 2019 was mentioned in an induction session for new councillors on policy development and scrutiny, which I attended last week.

In the training session, there was an emphasis on our culture and the importance of scrutiny for the effective functioning of a council.

This is an opportunity for us to work together for the good of our community, questioning, discussing, and challenging each other to find the best possible solutions.

As a newly elected councillor I am excited to represent my local community and participate in democratic, intellectually rigorous, and collaborative processes such as scrutiny.

I was very disappointed, however, to find out that the Green group was excluded from critical discussions on the panel and committee allocations and not invited to take up a single seat on any of the Policy Development and Scrutiny panels.

The chairs of Policy Development and Scrutiny panels have an important role to play and decide how to respond to Council or requests from the Executive.

In the previous administration, all three panels were chaired by members of the opposition.

This time around, the administration has proposed that 2 out of the 3 are chaired by members of their own group.

This administration will recognize that this contradicts its own call for different and better representative and collaborative politics backed by its support for the Green Party motion on Proportional Representation in public office.

As newly formed Green Party group, we were especially disappointed to find out we weren't initially invited to sit on the Climate Emergency and Sustainability Policy Development and Scrutiny panel.

We have expertise within our group and we would like to use this to help support real change and improvement in the area of climate and environment. We all recognize that, no matter how bright the team, it is dangerous to mark our own homework, at best there will be questions on motives, at worst there will be avoidable and costly mistakes.

I understand that there is a proportional system in place to determine the minimum allocation of seats on panels and committees, but why not be more welcoming to other groups to play a leading role in effective scrutiny and performance in our council?

Statement on accountability, scrutiny and local democracy

As a new councillor, I have been surprised by the lack of communication on the appointment of committee places to the various political groups.

While I appreciate that a proportional system based upon the number of seats gained is used to determine the overall split, this should not negate good relations through respectful and timely contact with all political groups to inform them of the intended allocation and to take on board suggestions.

On the training session about policy development and scrutiny last week, there was discussion around the accountability and good practice in councils being higher where the chairs of these committees were not automatically filled by members of the leading party.

While it is noted that one of the PDS committees is to be chaired by a member of the opposition during this term, it is disappointing to see that the other two are not.

What does this say about the leadership's consideration of accountability and scrutiny?

In addition, only a few months ago, this council resolved, "To write to his Majesty's Government calling for a change in our outdated electoral laws to enable Proportional Representation to be used for general and local authority elections."

In response to the request for better representation on the various committees, it appears that the aim of proportional representation has taken a backward step. While the leading party is keen to point out that they have gained the majority of the seats across the district, they simultaneously fail to acknowledge that their vote share actually went down, while most of the opposition groups gained greater support from voters district wide.

What does this say about the leadership's consideration of local democracy?

Finally, as a Ward Councillor in a rural area of NE Somerset, I would like to point out the impact of decisions which create inequity in small communities, where it is well known that needs are higher, but investment is significantly lower. This has been highlighted well tonight through statements relating to transport needs outside of the city of Bath.

I sincerely hope that the current level of communication between groups isn't an indicator of what can be expected going forwards. Respect for the breadth of knowledge and experience brought to the council from all democratically elected members is key and will allow effective collaboration and improvements to all areas of Bath and NE Somerset.
