Report Title: 'Prevent': radicalisation and extremism

List of attachments to this report:

Appendix 1 - Channel referral flowchart
Appendix 2 – Presentation (exempt)

The Report contains exempt information, according to the categories set out in the Local Government Act 1972 (amended Schedule 12A). The relevant exemption is set out below.

Stating the exemption:

7. Information relating to any action taken or to be taken in connection with the prevention, investigation or prosecution of crime.

The public interest test has been applied, and it is concluded that the public interest in maintaining the exemptions outweigh the public interest in disclosure at this time. It is therefore recommended that the exempt information set out above be withheld from publication on the Council website. The paragraphs below set out the relevant public interest issues in this case.

PUBLIC INTEREST TEST

If the Committee wishes to consider a matter with press and public excluded, it must be satisfied on two matters.

Firstly, it must be satisfied that the information likely to be disclosed falls within one of the accepted categories of exempt information under the Local Government Act 1972.

The officer responsible for this item believes that this information falls within the following exemption and this has been confirmed by the Council's Information Compliance Manager.

The following exemption is engaged in respect to this report:

Exemption 7 is engaged in relation to appendix 2 and this has been confirmed by the Council's Information Compliance Manager.

Secondly, it is necessary to weigh up the arguments for and against disclosure on public interest grounds. It is considered that there is a public interest in decisions relating to employee dismissals. It is necessary to weigh up the arguments for and against disclosure on public interest grounds. The main factor in favour of disclosure is that all possible Council information should be public and that increased openness about Council business allows the public and others affected by any decision the opportunity to participate in debates on important issues in their local area. Another factor in favour of disclosure is that the public and those affected by decisions should be entitled to see the basis on which decisions are reached.

Weighed against this is the fact that the exempt appendix contains strategic information, which if disclosed could prejudice the prevention of crime. It would not be in the public interest if advisors and officers could not discuss in confidence this type of sensitive information. It is also important that officers are able to retain some degree of private thinking space while decisions are being made, in order to discuss openly and frankly the issues under discussion in order to make a decision which is in the best interests of the public.

Therefore it is recommended that exemption 7 of Schedule 12A stands, that the exempt information be discussed in exempt session and that any reporting on the meeting is prevented in accordance with Section 100A(5A)
