A01 WELCOME TO OUR VISION FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Welcome to Awareness Mystery Value (AMV) 2022: the New Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education in Bath and North East Somerset, Bristol, North Somerset and the London Borough of Haringey.

This new syllabus, while strongly rooted in the previous versions of Awareness, Mystery and Value (1998, 2004, 2011, 2016), contains some updated information and some new guidance and support material.

It is important to note that there are NO CHANGES to the 2016 programmes of study.

VISION

Here is a restatement of how we would like things to be for pupils who follow this Syllabus. The purpose of the vision is to motivate and inspire teachers and learners to reach towards the goals within that vision.

Our vision:

Religion and Worldviews in our area is about Awareness, Mystery and Value.

Pupils who follow this syllabus gain a deep awareness of their own and others' identities; they wrestle with the mysteries of life and the answers given by a wide variety of religions and beliefs; they develop a clear sense of what is of real value in world today.

Pupils who follow this syllabus gain a deep knowledge and understanding of the teachings, practices and life stories expressed in a variety of ways within many different worldviews, including those of traditions represented in the area. Through reflection on their own beliefs and values in the light of their learning, they grow in respect for themselves and others.

Pupils who follow this syllabus encounter the transformative power of worldviews in people's lives – in our area, in the UK and in the wider world. They demonstrate curiosity about people of faith and commitment who have changed individual lives, society and culture. Through RE, they feel compelled to imagine and contribute to the creation of a better world for all.

A02 LEGAL FRAMEWORK, RIGHTS (INCLUDING THE RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL) AND RESPONSIBILITIES (FOR HEADTEACHERS, GOVERNORS AND RE SUBJECT LEADERS)

The two core purposes of the curriculum

The religious education set out in this syllabus contributes to the two purposes of the curriculum for all schools, academies and free schools.

In law, every state-funded school must offer a curriculum which is balanced and broadly based¹ and which:

1. promotes the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and of society, and
2. prepares pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life.

In relation to both of these aims RE has a vital part to play, which is connected in government understanding to the current initiatives for preparation for life in modern Britain and from the Counter Terrorism and Securities Act which places new duties on all schools.

Religious education supports the core purposes in a variety of ways:

- RE and spiritual, moral, social and cultural development and British Values
- RE and Inclusion \(Special Educational Needs & Disability\)
- RE and Inclusion \(Gifted & Talented\)
- RE and Inclusion \(Different Backgrounds\)
- RE and community cohesion

Publishing information about the provision of RE

Since September 2012, schools have been required to publish information in relation to each academic year, relating to the content of the school's curriculum for each subject and details about how additional information relating to the curriculum may be obtained. Schools following the AMV syllabus should apply the programmes of study to their curriculum arrangements for RE for each year group and publish this along with curriculum arrangements for other subjects.

The DfE's statutory guidance on the curriculum² makes it clear that 'All schools are required to teach religious education at all key stages' (3.6).

School leaders will want to emphasise in their documentation the vital role that high quality religious education can play in providing a well-rounded education for young people. Statements about the importance of RE can be found here: The Importance of RE.

¹ See Section 78 of the 2002 Education Act which applies to all maintained schools. Academies are also required to offer a broad and balanced curriculum in accordance with Section 1 of the 2010 Academies Act.

² <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-curriculum-in-england-framework-for-key-stages-1-to-4/the-national-curriculum-in-england-framework-for-key-stages-1-to-4>

The legal basis of RE in the curriculum

Every maintained school in England must provide a basic curriculum (RE, sex education and the National Curriculum). This includes provision for RE for all registered pupils at the school (including those in reception classes and the sixth form), except for those withdrawn by their parents (or withdrawing themselves if they are aged 18 or over) in accordance with Schedule 19 to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998.

The key document in determining the teaching of RE in community and voluntary controlled schools is the locally agreed syllabus within the local authority (LA) concerned (Section 376-377). LAs must ensure that the agreed syllabus for their area is consistent with Section 375(3) of the Education Act 1996, which requires the syllabus to reflect that the religious traditions of Great Britain are in the main Christian whilst taking account of the teaching and practices of the other principal religions represented in Great Britain.

In voluntary aided schools with a religious character, RE is to be determined by the governors and in accordance with the provisions of the trust deed relating to the school or, where there is no provision in the trust deed, with the religion or denomination mentioned in the order designating the school as having a religious character.

At voluntary controlled schools with a religious character, parents of any pupils at the school may request that they receive religious education in accordance with provisions of the trust deed relating to the school, and at voluntary aided schools with a religious character, parents of any pupils at the school may request that they receive religious education in accordance with the locally agreed syllabus. (School Standards and Framework Act 1998, Schedule 19. 3,4) Further advice on the application of these provisions may be sought from the local Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE).

All academies and free schools are required, through their funding agreements, to teach RE:

- For academies without a religious character, this will usually be the locally agreed syllabus;
- For denominational academies with a religious character (Church of England or Roman Catholic — but also Muslim and most Jewish academies), this will be in line with the denominational syllabus or advice;
- For non-denominational (such as Christian) faith academies this can be either of the above, depending on the wishes of the sponsor and what is agreed by ministers.

(Religious education guidance in English schools:
Non-statutory guidance 2010, pages 15f)

Further information about RE in academies can be found in Francis, D. and L. Blaylock (eds.), 2016, Religious Education in Your Academy: improving religious education in academies and free schools, RE Today Services.

Schools are not obliged to provide RE to pupils who are under compulsory school age (section 80(2)(a) of the Education Act 2002), although there are many instances of good practice where RE is taught to these pupils.

Separate legislative provision on RE is made for maintained special schools. Regulations covering maintained special schools require them to ensure that, as far as practicable, a pupil receives RE.

Governing bodies and headteachers, like local authorities, must:

- ensure that RE is provided as part of the school's basic curriculum, following the appropriate syllabus as listed above;
- provide an annual report to parents or carers giving brief particulars of progress and achievements in all subjects including RE (Regulation 6 of the Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1437).

In order to fulfil legal requirements in relation to this agreed syllabus, schools must provide religious education in accordance with the statutory programmes of study

The Right of Withdrawal from RE

The parent / carer of a pupil at a community, foundation or voluntary school or academy has the right to request that their child be excused from all or part of the RE provided.

Note that pupils over 16 can opt out of collective worship if they wish, but they cannot opt out of receiving RE unless they are over 18.

The purpose of the law on withdrawal has always been to allow parents and communities to make arrangements for their own preferred RE not so that children can take part in other studies or activities.

Schools should ensure that parents / carers who want to withdraw their children from RE are aware that RE is taught in an objective way that is relevant to all pupils and respects their own personal beliefs. They should be made aware of the RE syllabus learning objectives and what is covered in the RE curriculum and should be given the opportunity to discuss this, if they wish. The school may also wish to review such a request each year, in discussion with the parents. It is good practice to publish the RE policy in the prospectus and on the school website.

The right of withdrawal does not extend to other areas of the curriculum when, as may happen on occasion, spontaneous questions on religious matters are raised by pupils or there are issues related to religion that arise in other subjects such as history or citizenship.

Where parents have requested that their child is withdrawn, their right must be respected, and where RE is integrated in the curriculum, the school will need to discuss the arrangements with the parents or carers to explore how the child's withdrawal can be best accommodated. If pupils are withdrawn from RE, schools have a duty to supervise them, though not to provide additional teaching or to incur extra cost. Pupils will usually remain on school premises.

Where a pupil has been withdrawn, the law provides for alternative arrangements to be made for RE of the kind the parent wants the pupil to receive (Section 71(3) of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998).

This RE could be provided at the school in question, or the pupil could be sent to another school where suitable RE is provided if this is reasonably convenient. If neither approach is practicable, outside arrangements can be made to provide the pupil with the kind of RE that the parent wants, and the pupil may be withdrawn from school for a reasonable period of time to allow them to attend this external RE.

Outside arrangements for RE are allowed as long as the LA is satisfied that any interference with the pupil's attendance at school resulting from the withdrawal will affect only the start or end of a school session.

If the school is a secondary school and parents have withdrawn a pupil from RE provided at the school and asked for alternative RE to be provided in accordance with the tenets of a particular religion or denomination, then the LA must either:

- provide facilities for the alternative RE to be given at the school unless there are special circumstances which would make it unreasonable to do so, or
- agree to outside arrangements being made as long as no financial burden falls on the LA or school as a result of these arrangements.

In the case of a pupil at a maintained boarding school where a sixth-former, or the parents of a pupil below the sixth form, requests that the pupil be allowed to receive RE in accordance with the tenets of a particular religion or denomination outside school hours, the governing body must make arrangements to give the pupil a reasonable opportunity to do so. This could involve making facilities available at the school, but any such arrangements cannot be funded out of the school's budget or by the local authority (LA) (Section 71 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998).

A03 PROVISION AND TIME FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Every School and Academy must in law provide religious education for all its pupils – unless they are withdrawn by their parents. This requirement applies to every pupil on roll, aged from 4-19. Although the arrangements for local authority schools – agreed syllabuses for example - don't apply to Academies, they must all give every pupil an RE curricular entitlement.

Academies in the local authorities covered by the AMV syllabus are all welcome to continue to follow it and to use the programmes of study.

In order to ensure that the statutory programmes of study in this agreed syllabus are covered in sufficient breadth and depth, it is estimated that the following minimum hours should be provided³:

- ◆ Reception: 36 hours per year;
- ◆ Key Stage 1: 36 hours per year;
- ◆ Key Stage 2: 45 hours per year;
- ◆ Key Stage 3: 45 hours per year;
- ◆ Key Stage 4: 40 hours per year;
- ◆ For post-16 students⁴ in full-time education at community and voluntary controlled schools: 10 hours per year.

In following this agreed syllabus, schools have the flexibility to complement discrete subject teaching with cross-curricular learning experiences that are more tailored to the needs of their pupils and community. In practice this means that RE might be taught discretely at some points during the school year, but at other times, might be linked with other subjects of the curriculum, in order to provide a coherent and engaging approach to a particular enquiry.

For example, schools might decide to include RE on 'collapsed timetable' days, or as part of weekly, monthly or termly projects. When doing so, they should be careful to include a focus on the TWO areas of enquiry linked to the units within the featured programme of study.

According to the non-statutory guidance on religious education, while schools are free to decide when and how RE is taught and how much time is spent on it, 'they remain responsible for implementing the legally required syllabus and for monitoring pupils' progress' (2010, p. 2).

See Curriculum models: Collaborative Learning in RE

³ See Religious education guidance in English schools: Non-statutory guidance, 2010, p. 9)

⁴ Post 16 students have the right to withdraw themselves from RE [and collective worship].
See The Right to Withdraw.

B01 WHY IS THE SYLLABUS CALLED 'AWARENESS MYSTERY VALUE' (AMV)?

The name 'Awareness-Mystery-Value' was inspired by the work of David Hay and Rebecca Nye (The Spirit of the Child, 1998, p.59) who categorised meaningful, peak or religious experiences into three types:

Awareness-sensing: This is where a person has a heightened perception of the 'here-and-now' or the 'flow' of life'.

Mystery-sensing: This is where a person's sense of awe, wonder and imagination has been raised, so that they are momentarily lifted 'out of the ordinary'.

Value-sensing: This is where a person's concern with their own needs and wants has been transcended by an experience of greater or deeper value, resulting in some profound feelings and / or insights.

Each unit in the AMV programme of study is linked to at least one of these types; not that such experiences will be guaranteed, of course, but so that pupils may enquire into the deepest and most meaningful of human experiences as part of their religious education. At the same time, pupils' enquiries will be focused on specific teaching about religions and beliefs, so that they will have the opportunity to gain a deeper knowledge and understanding of the religious and non-religious worldviews being studied.

See 'ATTAINMENT TARGET AND AREAS OF ENQUIRY' for more information.

B02 ATTAINMENT TARGET AND AREAS OF ENQUIRY

Attainment target

In line with the programmes of study in subjects of the national curriculum, and with the National Curriculum Framework for RE published by the Religious Education Council of England and Wales (REC) in 2013, this syllabus adopts a single attainment target:

By the end of each key stage, students are expected to know, apply and understand the matters, skills and processes specified in the relevant programme of study.

The Six Areas of Enquiry

The six areas of enquiry are unchanged from the previous (2011) syllabus. They form the structure around which pupils' learning in RE develops. It is important for RE subject leaders to note that each unit in the programme of study combines TWO focuses for learning: one from the first group of three areas of enquiry (A, B or C) plus one from the second group of three (D, E or F). These twin focuses are noted alongside the unit enquiry questions in capital letters.

Pupils revisit each area of enquiry during their studies, and this provides the opportunity for them to deepen their knowledge and understanding of religious and non-religious worldviews over each key stage.

The first three areas (A, B, C) are primarily concerned with what may be learnt ABOUT religious and non-religious worldviews. Here, the emphasis is on the study of key beliefs, teachings, sources, practices and forms of expression.

The second three areas (D, E, F) are much more focused on what may be learnt FROM religious and non-religious worldviews. Here, the emphasis is on the study of identities (awareness), big questions of life (mystery) and people's deeply held commitments (value).

Good RE effectively balances learning about and learning from Religion and Beliefs.

The six areas of enquiry are outlined in the following pages.

A. BELIEFS, TEACHINGS AND SOURCES

- i) Interpreting beliefs, teachings and sources of wisdom and authority in order to understand religions and beliefs.
- ii) Understanding and responding critically to beliefs and attitudes.

Religious and non-religious ideas of the ultimate.

Aspects for investigation could focus on God, gods, gurus, teachers, scriptures, key texts, enlightenment, truth, prophecy, soul and life after death.

Key question for RE: how do religious and non-religious worldviews understand and develop beliefs and teachings within their traditions?

Related disciplines: metaphysics and textual analysis.

B. PRACTICES AND WAYS OF LIFE

- i) Exploring the impact of religions and beliefs on how people live their lives.
- ii) Understanding and responding critically to beliefs and attitudes.

Religious and non-religious practices and ways of life.

Aspects for investigation could focus on worship, prayer, meditation, celebration and pilgrimage, as well as the religious and non-religious artefacts, special times and festivals associated with them.

Key question for RE: how do people keep in touch with their faith/philosophy?

Related discipline: phenomenology.

C. FORMS OF EXPRESSING MEANING

- i) Appreciating that individuals and cultures express their beliefs and values through many different forms.

The many different ways in which prophets, artists, poets, writers, architects, theologians, composers, performers and story-tellers have attempted to express their beliefs and values.

Aspects for investigation could focus on religious music, songs, pictures, symbols, metaphors, poetry, parables, stories, myths, jokes, sculpture, carving, dance, drama, buildings, creeds, prayers, ritual writing, rituals, calligraphy, attitudes, behaviour and lifestyles.

Key question for RE: how do people communicate their beliefs and values to others?

Related discipline: language.

D. IDENTITY, DIVERSITY AND BELONGING

- i) Understanding how individuals develop a sense of identity and belonging through faith or belief.
- ii) Exploring the variety, difference and relationships that exist within and between religions, values and beliefs.

Religious and non-religious ideas about human individuality and society. Aspects for investigation could focus on: relationships, experiences, local / national / global / virtual communities, individuality, personality, feelings, preferences, faith, causes of conflict, dialogue between faiths and philosophies.

Key question for RE: what do people say about human nature?

Related disciplines: anthropology, psychology, sociology.

E. MEANING, PURPOSE AND TRUTH

- i) Exploring some of the ultimate questions that confront humanity, and responding imaginatively to them.

The ups, downs and meaning(s) of life's journey.

Aspects for investigation could focus on: religious and non-religious views about life's wonders and sadnesses, its triumphs and tribulations, the place and role of human beings within the natural world and on the search for meaning, purpose and truth in philosophy, religion and science.

Key question for RE: how do people tackle the big questions of life?

Related discipline: ontology.

F. VALUES AND COMMITMENTS

- i) Understanding how moral values and a sense of obligation can come from beliefs and experience.
- ii) Evaluating their own and others' values in order to make informed, rational and imaginative choices.

Moral issues in today's world.

Aspects for investigation could focus on: religious and non-religious influences on values, commitments, laws, attitudes, behaviour, and moral guidelines, and study of the sources of moral authority which might guide decision making.

Key question for RE: what is the best possible use of life?

Related discipline: ethics.

B03 COVERAGE OF RELIGIONS AND BELIEFS

At each Stage there are minimum requirements for which religions are to be studied.

In addition to the focus religions indicated below, schools are free to include additional studies of religions and beliefs, as well as groups within traditions, as they judge to be appropriate and according to local or specific curriculum interests. Particularly in relation to community cohesion all schools are encouraged to ensure that their RE curriculum reflects the principal faiths and beliefs in the locality. For example, schools may wish to take account of particular faiths when there are adherents in the classroom, e.g., by acknowledging festivals when they occur and making these times ‘special days’ for children who celebrate them.

In selecting religions and beliefs for study, schools should take account of the wishes of parents and governors in line with the intention to minimise the number of parents who might wish to withdraw their children from religious education.

Teachers should ensure that, over each Key Stage as a whole, their schemes of work reflect the fact that the religious traditions in Great Britain are in the main Christian, while taking account of the teachings and practices of the principal religions indicated below. Throughout the programme of study schools will include consideration of non-religious as well as religious perspectives.

Guidance for appropriate material to be used for each religion is to be found in the KEY FEATURES OF EACH RELIGION AT THE APPROPRIATE KEY STAGE.

Learning Opportunities from the Programmes of Study should be illustrated from AT LEAST the following religious traditions:

Foundation and Key Stage 1	Christianity plus at least ONE other religion, from:	Hinduism, Islam or Judaism.
Key Stage 2	Christianity plus at least THREE other religions:	Hinduism, Islam and Judaism.
Key Stage 3	Christianity plus at least THREE other religions, from:	Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism or Sikhism.
Key Stage 4	Christianity plus at least ONE other religion, from:	Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism or Sikhism

Over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, there should be teaching about Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview, such as Humanism.

At each Key Stage there are a number of Learning Opportunities in the form of supplementary questions for each unit, which must be provided within the Programmes of Study. Arrangements for Key Stage 4 depend on the choices made by the school.

The balance of religions to be studied is indicated below:

At Foundation and Key Stage 1 there are 34 statutory Learning Opportunities, some of which relate to pupils' own experience. Each of the remaining Learning Opportunities may be illustrated from one or a number of religious traditions, subject to the following:

- for at least twelve of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Christianity;
- for at least eight of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about ONE of the following religions: Hinduism, Islam, Judaism.

At Key Stage 2 there are 41 statutory Learning Opportunities, some of which are related to specific religions. Each of the remaining Learning Opportunities may be illustrated from one or a number of religious traditions, subject to the following:

- for at least 13 of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Christianity. Six of these Learning Opportunities would be covered through Study Units 2 and 4;
- for at least 4 of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Hinduism. 2 of these Learning Opportunities would be covered through Study Unit 10;
- for at least 4 of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Islam. 2 of these Learning Opportunities would be covered through Study Unit 11;
- for at least 4 of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Judaism. 2 of these Learning Opportunities would be covered through Study Unit 12.

At Key Stage 3 there are 37 statutory Learning Opportunities. Each Learning Opportunity may be illustrated from one or a number of religious traditions, subject to the following:

- for at least 14 of the Learning Opportunities, there should be teaching about Christianity;
- aspects of THREE of the following religions should also be covered: Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, Sikhism. There should be teaching about EACH of the three selected religions, for at least four of the Learning Opportunities;
- teachers should ensure that, over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, Buddhism and Sikhism are featured at least to the level indicated above. In addition, there should be teaching about a non-religious worldview, such as Humanism.

At Key Stage 4 Learning Opportunities should be given through the chosen course as indicated in the Programmes of Study, subject to the following:

- the programme of study will focus on Christianity and at least ONE other religion, which may have been studied at Key Stage 3.

Over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, there should be teaching about Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview, such as Humanism.

B04 SKILLS IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The following skills are central to religious education, and should be reflected in learning opportunities. This syllabus places an important emphasis on the development of skills at all stages of learning, reflecting the National Curriculum Framework for RE requirement to 'ensure all pupils gain and deploy the skills needed to engage seriously with religions and non-religious worldviews...' (NCFRE, 2013, pp.11-12)

This section highlights the skills intrinsic to RE, followed by the contribution of RE to the broader skills in the primary and secondary curriculum.

a) Investigation - this includes:

- ❖ asking relevant questions;
- ❖ knowing how to use a variety of sources in order to gather information;
- ❖ knowing what may count as good evidence in understanding religion(s).

b) Interpretation - this includes:

- ❖ the ability to draw meaning from artefacts, works of art, poetry and symbolism;
- ❖ the ability to interpret religious language;
- ❖ the ability to suggest meanings of religious texts.

c) Reflection - this includes:

- ❖ the ability to reflect on feelings, experience, attitudes, beliefs, values, relationships, practices and ultimate questions.

d) Empathy - this includes:

- ❖ developing the power of imagination to identify feelings such as love, wonder, forgiveness and sorrow;
- ❖ the ability to consider the thoughts, feelings, experiences, attitudes, beliefs and values of others;
- ❖ the ability to see the world through the eyes of others, and to see issues from their point of view.

e) Evaluation - this includes:

- ❖ the ability to debate issues of religious significance with reference to evidence, argument, opinion and statements of faith;
- ❖ weighing the respective claims of self-interest, consideration for others, religious teaching and individual conscience.

f) Analysis - this includes:

- ❖ distinguishing between opinion, belief and fact;
- ❖ recognizing bias, caricature, prejudice and stereotyping;

- ❖ distinguishing between the features of different religions.
- g) Synthesis - this includes:
- ❖ linking significant features of religion(s) together in a coherent pattern;
 - ❖ connecting different aspects of life into a meaningful whole.
- h) Application - this includes:
- ❖ making links between religion and individual, community, national and international life;
 - ❖ identifying key religious values and their links with secular values.
- i) Expression - this includes:
- ❖ the ability to articulate ideas, beliefs and values;
 - ❖ the ability to respond to religious ideas, beliefs and questions through a variety of media.
- j) Self-understanding - this includes:
- ❖ the ability to draw meaning from significant experiences in their own and others' lives and from religious questions and answers.

Click here for further guidance on the KEY DRIVING WORDS FOR SKILLS PROGRESSION.

B05 ATTITUDES IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Attitudes such as respect, care and concern should be promoted through all areas of school life. In this way religious education contributes to the whole school ethos.

There are some attitudes that are fundamental to religious education in that they are prerequisites for entering fully into the study of religion and belief, and learning from that experience. Teachers should help pupils to develop their:

- a) Self-esteem – by providing opportunities for them to:
 - ❖ recognize their own uniqueness as human beings, and affirm their self worth;
 - ❖ feel confident about their own beliefs and identity and share them without fear of embarrassment or ridicule;
 - ❖ develop a realistic and positive sense of their own religious and spiritual ideas;
 - ❖ become increasingly sensitive to the impact of their ideas and behaviour upon other people.

- b) Curiosity – by providing opportunities for them to:
 - ❖ explore religious ideas through reflection, empathy and imagination;
 - ❖ look beyond surface impressions;
 - ❖ look for answers and seek after truth;
 - ❖ search for meanings in life;
 - ❖ consider the personal relevance of religious questions.

- c) Sense of Fairness – by providing opportunities for them to:
 - ❖ listen carefully to the views of others;
 - ❖ acknowledge bias in their own views;
 - ❖ consider evidence and argument;
 - ❖ make reasoned judgements about what is worthy of respect and what is not.

- d) Respect for others – by providing opportunities for them to:
 - ❖ recognize the needs and concerns of others;
 - ❖ understand the importance of not ridiculing others;
 - ❖ recognize the rights of others to hold their own views;
 - ❖ appreciate that people's religious beliefs are often deeply felt;
 - ❖ develop a balanced sense of self-worth and value.

B06 OVERVIEW OF THE STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

Awareness, Mystery and Value (AMV) 2016 contains a statutory programme of study for each key stage.

Each programme of study consists of between nine and twelve units, framed as core questions, with between three and five supplementary questions for each unit.

Each of these units is linked to TWO of the SIX focus areas of enquiry, as described in ATTAINMENT TARGET AND AREAS OF ENQUIRY. Whilst attainment is described by a single attainment target, the six areas of enquiry offer structure to ensure balance and coverage when planning.

The first focus in each unit is taken from the areas of enquiry previously known as Attainment Target 1 or learning ABOUT religion and belief:

A = Beliefs, Teachings and Sources

B = Practices and Ways of Life

C = Forms of Expressing Meaning

The second focus is taken from the areas of enquiry previously known as Attainment target 2 or learning FROM religion and belief:

D = Identity, Diversity and Belonging

E = Meaning, Purpose and Truth

F = Values and Commitments

It is vital for breadth and balance that any sequence of lessons for any unit includes a twin focus on the indicated areas of enquiry and that assessment of pupils' progress in RE is related to them both.

Each unit's key question is therefore followed by two capital letters, e.g., "A&D". This means that the enquiry is to be carried out with a focus on area A – Beliefs, Teachings and Sources, and area D – Identity, Diversity and Belonging.

Breadth of study

After the unit questions for each key stage you will find a paragraph describing the 'characteristics of learning' for that key stage, plus a short list of the types of experiences and opportunities expected to be provided for pupils.

The focus AREAS OF ENQUIRY \(AoEs\) are indicated in the right hand columns. Click on the links here to find SCHEMES OF LEARNING and ASSESSMENT EXEMPLARS.

B07 STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

FOUNDATION STAGE

Introduction

The foundation stage describes the phase of a child's education from the age of 3 to the end of reception at the age of 5 years. Religious education is statutory for all registered pupils on the school roll.

During the foundation stage, children begin to explore the world of religion and belief in terms of special people, books, times, places and objects, visiting places of worship and through celebration. Children listen to and talk about stories. They are introduced to specialist words and use their senses in exploring religious beliefs, practices and forms of expression. They reflect upon their own feelings and experiences. They use their imagination and curiosity to develop their appreciation and wonder of the world in which they live.

Samples of foundation stage work linked to the AMV 2016 programmes of study.

The contribution of religious education to the early learning goals

In line with the DfE's 2013 EYFS Profile, RE should, through planned purposeful play and through a mix of adult-led and child-initiated activity, provide appropriate learning opportunities for pupils in the following areas:

- personal, social and emotional development (PSED);
- communication and language (CL);
- mathematics (Ma);
- literacy (Li);
- understanding the world (UW);
- expressive arts and design (EAD).

Religious education can make a limited contribution to mathematics, but an important contribution to all the other areas.

The following tables provide examples of opportunities that teachers can plan into the RE programmes of study that will help children to demonstrate achievement and progress in relation to each area of the EYFS profile.

Personal, social and emotional development
Self-confidence and self-awareness	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children say why they like some activities more than others. They are confident to speak in a familiar group and will talk about their own ideas.	Children reflect upon their own feelings and experiences in some stories from religious traditions and explore them in different ways.
Managing feelings and behaviour	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children know that some behaviour is unacceptable. They work as part of a group or class and understand and follow the rules.	Using story from a religious tradition as a source, children talk about their ideas of what is fair and unfair, and how to behave towards each other.
Children talk about how they and others show feelings, talk about their own and others' behaviour and its consequences.	Using story as a stimulus, children reflect upon the words and actions of characters in the story and decide what they would have done in a similar situation. Children also learn about the consequences of their actions through play.
They adjust their behaviour to different situations.	Children visit local places of worship and talk about why they are important for some people.
Making relationships	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children can take turns and be co-operative. They can take account of others' feelings.	Using religious artefacts as a stimulus, children handle sensitively a religious object and talk about why it might be special for some people, showing respect.
They show sensitivity to others' needs and feelings and can form positive relationships.	Using role play as a stimulus, children talk about some of the ways that people show love and concern for others and why this is important.

Communication and language
Listening and attention	Examples of what children could do in RE
They listen to stories, accurately anticipating key events and respond to what they hear with relevant comments, questions or actions.	Using stories and songs from religion as a stimulus, children ask questions about things they find interesting or puzzling.
Understanding	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children answer “how” and “why” questions about their experiences in response to stories and events.	Having visited a local place of worship, children ask and answer questions associated with the place, showing respect. Children identify and talk about the sequence of events in a story about love and forgiveness.
Speaking	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children express themselves effectively. They use past, present and future forms accurately when talking about events that have happened.	Using a religious celebration as a stimulus, children talk about the special events associated with the celebration.

Literacy
Reading	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children read and understand simple sentences.	Using age appropriate retellings of religious stories as a stimulus, children read or can identify key words.
Writing	Examples of what children could do in RE
Children write simple sentences which can be read by themselves and others.	Children complete a story board of a story by writing a simple sentence under the picture.

Mathematics
Shape, space and measure
Children use everyday language to talk about size, weight, position, to compare objects.	Using artefacts as a stimulus, children talk about relative size and position within a place of worship.
They explore characteristics of objects and shapes and use mathematical language to describe them.	Children describe the shapes of religious symbols and artefacts.
Recognise, create and describe patterns	Using patterns within art from religious traditions, children identify the patterns and can create their own.

Understanding the world
Understanding the World	Examples of what children could do in RE
People and Communities Talk about past and present events in their own lives, and in the lives of family members. They know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities and traditions.	Children talk about important events such as the birth of a baby and how, for some people, this is celebrated by a religious ceremony. Through artefacts, stories and music, children learn about important religious celebrations.
The world Children know about similarities and differences in relation to places, objects, materials and living things. Talk about features of their environment and how environments may vary from one another.	Using religious artefacts as a stimulus, children think about uses and meanings associated with the artefact. Visit a place of worship and explore different methods / explore relevant foods using senses. Using stories from religious traditions as a stimulus, children talk about the importance of valuing and looking after the environment.
Technology Select and use technology for particular purposes.	Using appropriate software children find out about special events in religious traditions.

Expressive arts and design
Expressive arts and design	Examples of what children could do in RE
Exploring using media and materials Safely use and explore a variety of materials, tools and techniques, experimenting with colour, design, texture, form and function.	On visiting a place of worship, children talk about and share their experiences and memories of the place, using a variety of media.
Being imaginative Represent their own ideas through design and technology, art, music, dance, role-play and stories.	In response to story, music, art and dance from religious traditions, children create their own simple dance and role-play to recreate key elements of the story.

Characteristics of Learning

Throughout the foundation stage, children are introduced to the world of religion and belief through focusing on special people, places, objects, stories, music and celebrations. They learn to recognise that religion is important to some people in their local community. They reflect on what is important to themselves and others. They engage with RE through a range of resources especially stories, artefacts, pictures, posters, ICT and simple songs, dance and drama. They reflect on and share their own feelings and become aware of the feelings of others.

B08 STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

RECEPTION AND KEY STAGE 1

Introduction

These units of work take the form of a key question followed by a series of supplementary questions which provide the structure and direction of the individual unit. Taken collectively the units provide an important balance between AT1 and AT2 and ensure full coverage of the six areas of enquiry. The characteristics of learning highlight the key features of RE at Key stage 1 and the experiences opportunities provide guidance on the kinds of learning experiences children at Key stage 1 should encounter.

The 'characteristics of learning' at the end of this section highlight the essence of RE in Key stage 1 and the experiences / opportunities provide guidance on the types of learning encouraged for Key Stage 1 pupils.

Each unit is followed by the MINIMUM expected learning outcomes. Pupils will usually learn much more than this in their RE, but there is a core of knowledge, understanding and skills that should be achieved if further progress is to be made. Note that Christianity is mentioned in each unit, but that learning about and from Christianity is not a compulsory part of each and every unit.

Examples of how pupils might demonstrate whether they are below, within, secure or exceeding each statement are given in the AMV Learning Outcomes documents.

It is recommended that pupils are given feedback on how well they are doing in RE in relation to these statements. The statements can also be used to indicate what pupils need to do next in order to make progress. Items in square brackets within the Learning Outcomes statements need not be covered in that particular unit of study.

It is also recommended that teachers give feedback to pupils on the attitudes shown to their learning in RE. For example, do they grow in confidence about their own beliefs and identity? Do they reflect on what they are learning and use empathy and imagination? Do they look beyond surface impressions and search for meaning in life? Do they listen carefully to the views of others and consider evidence and argument? Do they recognise the needs and concerns of others? Do they appreciate that people's beliefs are often deeply felt? Do they develop a balanced sense of self-worth and value?

1. Who are we? [A&D]

This unit explores ideas of what it is to be human and relates them to religious and other beliefs

- (a) Who and what is special to me? (People, places, experiences, feelings, stories, objects, beliefs, values)
- (b) Who and what supports and guides us? (People, experiences, feelings, beliefs, values, ideas)
- (c) What makes us joyful, peaceful, wonder, reflective, happy and sad? (Experiences, places, celebrations, stories, songs and, for some people, prayers)
- (d) How might stories, prayers, songs, etc help us understand more about ourselves and ideas of God?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews c: ask their own questions about God/deity, special people and special occasions;

Christianity c: say something about how Christians talk about a relationship with God;

Other religion/worldview a: recall stories about an inspirational person;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

2. Why are some times special? [B&E]

This unit explores those aspects of life on earth which are reflected in the pattern of religious and other practices and festivals

- (a) What special times and seasons can I remember? Why were these times special?
- (b) Why are some festivals and celebrations special?
 - When do they happen?
 - What do they remember?
 - What do people do and why?
- (c) What special objects might be used in festivals and celebrations?
- (d) How might some stories and practices associated with religious and other festivals and celebrations relate to experiences and feelings in our own lives?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews b: talk about some things about people, that make people ask questions;

Christianity b: recall the key features of the Gospel stories of Christmas and Easter;

Other religion/worldview b: recall key features of an inspirational event, place, ritual or special occasion;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

3. Why are some stories special? [C&F]

This unit explores how religions and beliefs express values and commitments in a variety of creative ways

- (a) What stories and books are special to me and my family?
- (b) What stories and books are special to people within religions and beliefs?
- (c) How are stories told and books used within religions and beliefs?
- (d) What do some stories and books say about how people should live?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews a: talk about what is important to them and to other people with respect for feelings;

Christianity d: say something about how and why Christians try to help others;

Other religion/worldview d: say something about how and why followers of this tradition try to help others;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

4. Where do we belong? [B&D]

This unit explores ideas of those aspects of human nature which relate to the practices of religion and belief communities

- (a) Where do I belong? (Feelings, experiences)
- (b) Where do people belong? (Family, local community, group, club, place, country, faith)
- (c) What do people do because they belong to a faith or belief community?
- (d) How might ideas of family and community be reflected in our own lives?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews a: talk about what is important to them and to other people with respect for feelings;

Christianity a: recall some of the ways in which Christmas and Easter are celebrated in different ways by different Christians;

Other religion/worldview a: recall stories about an inspirational person;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

5. How do we celebrate our journey through life? [C&E]

This unit explores how religions and beliefs express aspects of life's journey in a variety of creative ways

- (a) How do people celebrate the important events in their lives? (Birth, naming ceremonies, coming of age, joining a group, marriage, death)
- (b) How do members of a religious faith celebrate these milestones in the journey of life?
- (c) What artefacts, symbols and ceremonies are used at significant times?
- (d) Why are some times in life significant or special?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews b: talk about some things about people, that make people ask questions;

Christianity a: recall some of the ways in which Christmas and Easter are celebrated in different ways by different Christians;

Other religion/worldview c: say how stories in a selected tradition are inspirational for believers;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

6. How should we live our lives? [A&F]

This unit explores how religious and other beliefs affect approaches to moral issues

- (a) How does what I do affect other people?
- (b) What rules and codes of behaviour help me know what to do?
- (c) What values are important to me, and how can I show them in how I live? (Fairness, honesty, forgiveness, kindness)
- (d) How do some stories from religions and beliefs and the example set by some people show me what to do?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews a: talk about what is important to them and to other people with respect for feelings;

Christianity d: say something about how and why Christians try to help others;

Other religion/worldview d: say something about how and why followers of this tradition try to help others;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

7. Why are some places special? [C&D]

This unit explores how religions and beliefs express aspects of human nature in a variety of creative ways

- (a) What places are special to me? Why are they special?
- (b) What places are special to members of a religious or belief community? (Buildings used for worship, special places in the home)
- (c) What do these buildings that are special to religious or belief communities look like?
 - Do they have special places, objects, pictures or symbols?
 - How are these used?
 - What do they tell us about what people believe?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS1:

Religions & Worldviews c: ask their own questions about God/deity, special people and special occasions;

Christianity c: say something about how Christians talk about a relationship with God;

Other religion/worldview b: recall key features of an inspirational event, place, ritual or special occasion;

Throughout: provide a good reason for the views they have and the connections they make.

Characteristics of Learning

Throughout Key Stage 1 children explore Christianity and one religion from Hinduism, Islam or Judaism as the focused religions. They learn about different beliefs about God and the world around them. They encounter and respond to a range of stories, artefacts and other religious materials. They learn to recognize that beliefs are expressed in a variety of ways, and begin to use specialist vocabulary. They begin to understand the importance and value of religion for believers, especially other children and their families. Children ask relevant questions and develop a sense of wonder about the world, using their imaginations. They talk about what is important to themselves and others, valuing themselves, reflecting on their own feelings and experiences and developing a sense of belonging.

Experiences and opportunities

- visiting places of worship, focusing on symbols and feelings
- listening to and responding to visitors from local faith communities
- using their senses and having times of quiet reflection
- using art and design, music, dance and drama to develop their creative talents
- sharing their own beliefs, ideas and values, and talking about their feelings and experiences
- beginning to use ICT to explore religions and beliefs as practised in the local and wider communities.

B09 STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

KEY STAGE 2

Introduction

These units of work have been reshaped to form a key question followed by a series of supplementary questions which provide the focus and structure for each unit. The emphasis is on developing the skills of investigation and enquiry and effectively balancing what pupils learn ABOUT religions and beliefs and what they learn FROM religions and beliefs.

The 'characteristics of learning' at the end of this section highlight the essence of RE in Key stage 2 and the experiences / opportunities provide guidance on the types of learning encouraged for Key Stage 2 pupils.

The units of study listed below have been divided into two sections. The first section of each unit is recommended for study in Years 3 and 4 and the second section for Years 5 and 6. Schools are, however, free to vary this approach as suits their curriculum plans.

Each section is followed by the MINIMUM expected learning outcomes. Pupils will usually learn much more than this in their RE, but there is a core of knowledge, understanding and skills that should be achieved if further progress is to be made. Note that Christianity is mentioned in each of the first nine units, but that learning about and from Christianity is not a compulsory part of each and every unit.

Examples of how pupils might demonstrate whether they are below, within, secure or exceeding each statement are given in the AMV Learning Outcomes documents.

It is recommended that pupils are given feedback on how well they are doing in RE in relation to these statements. The statements can also be used to indicate what pupils need to do next in order to make progress. Items in square brackets within the Learning Outcomes statements need not be covered in that particular unit of study.

It is also recommended that teachers give feedback to pupils on the attitudes shown to their learning in RE. For example, do they grow in confidence about their own beliefs and identity? Do they reflect on what they are learning and use empathy and imagination? Do they look beyond surface impressions and search for meaning in life? Do they listen carefully to the views of others and consider evidence and argument? Do they recognise the needs and concerns of others? Do they appreciate that people's beliefs are often deeply felt? Do they develop a balanced sense of self-worth and value?

1. What is important to me? [A&D]

This unit explores ideas of what it is to be human and relates them to religious and other beliefs

- (a) Who am I and what does it mean to be human? (Physical and non-physical aspects of human identity)
- (b) Where do I belong? (My school, home, family, tradition, cultures, organisations including those involving religion and belief, local community, the UK, the global community)

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews b: ask important questions about the practice of faith and compare some different possible answers;

Christianity c: describe a way in which some Christians work together locally;

Other religion/worldview a: describe what believers might learn from the significant texts/writings being studied;

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

- (c) What am I worth? (Beliefs about the value of human beings)
- (d) How might stories, hymns, prayers etc help people understand more about themselves and their relationships?

2. What can we learn from the life and teaching of Jesus? [B&E]

This unit explores aspects of the person, life and teaching of Jesus and how they relate to Christian life, practices, celebrations and the pattern of Christian festivals

- (a) Who is Jesus and what does it mean to follow him today? (Christian, Muslim, Hindu and other answers about the character and status of Jesus)
- (b) What did Jesus teach about:
 - Love
 - Sin, forgiveness and redemption
 - Revenge and peace/ reconciliation
 - Greed and giving
 - Making a difference
 - Prayer
- (d) Why might Christmas be important to ourselves as well as (other) Christians?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews b: ask important questions about the practice of faith and compare some different possible answers;

Christianity a: describe what Christians might learn about Jesus from the Gospel stories of miracles [and his resurrection];

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

3. Why do religious books and teachings matter? [C&F]

This unit explores how religions and beliefs express values and commitments in a variety of written forms, and how value is attached to those writings

- (a) What different kinds of writing and story are there that are important to religions and beliefs?
- (b) Where do the most special kinds of writings and stories come from?
- (c) How do communities show that they value special books and writings?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews c: link their own ideas about how to lead a good life to the teachings of religions and beliefs being studied;

Christianity d: describe the importance of the Bible for Christians and give examples of how it is used;

Other religion/worldview b: describe what some of the arts in the tradition being studied might mean to believers;

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

4. What does it mean to belong to a religion? Christianity [B&D]

This units explore aspects of Christian festivals, celebrations, practices and communities and the beliefs to which they relate

(a) How do Christians celebrate and live out their beliefs in:

- the journey of life?
- their main festivals and practices?
- their faith communities?
- the wider world?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews b: ask important questions about the practice of faith and compare some different possible answers;

Christianity a: describe what Christians might learn about Jesus from the Gospel stories of miracles and his resurrection;

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

(b) Within the different Christian groups what are the most important similarities and key differences ? Why do they differ? How do they seek to work together ?

7. How do people express their beliefs and identity? [C&D]

This unit explores how religions and beliefs employ signs, symbols and the arts to express aspects of human nature

- (a) How do people express their beliefs, identity and experiences using signs, symbols and the wider arts, e.g. art, buildings, dance, drama, music, painting, poetry, ritual, and story? Why do some people of faith not use the arts to represent certain things?
- (b) How and why are 'universal' symbols like colour, light, darkness, wind, sound, water, fire and silence used in religions and beliefs?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews a: compare different ideas about God and humanity in the traditions studied;

Christianity b: describe some of the different ways in which different Christians show their beliefs in creation, incarnation and salvation, including through the arts, worship and helping others;

Other religion/worldview b: describe what some of the arts in the tradition being studied might mean to believers;

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

8. What do people believe about life? [A&E]

This unit explores ideas about the natural world and our place in it and relates them to religious and other beliefs

- (a) What feelings do people experience in relation to birth, change, death and the natural world?
- (b) What answers might be given by ourselves and by religions and beliefs to questions about:
 - (i) the origin and meaning of life?
 - (ii) our place in society and the natural world?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for Lower KS2:

Religions & Worldviews a: compare different ideas about God and humanity in the traditions studied;

Christianity b: describe some of the different ways in which different Christians show their beliefs in creation, incarnation and salvation, including through the arts, worship and helping others;

Other religion/worldview a: describe what believers might learn from the significant texts/writings being studied;

Throughout: provide good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make.

Characteristics of Learning

Throughout Key Stage 2, children learn about Christianity, Hinduism, Islam and Judaism, recognizing the impact of religion locally, nationally and globally. They make connections between different aspects of religion and consider the different forms of religious expression. They consider the beliefs, teachings, practices and ways of life central to religion. They learn about sacred texts and other sources and consider their meanings. They begin to recognize diversity in religion, learning about similarities and differences both within and between religions and the importance of dialogue between them. They extend the range and use of specialist vocabulary. They recognize the challenges involved in distinguishing between ideas of right and wrong, and valuing what is good and true. They communicate their ideas clearly, recognizing other people's viewpoints. They consider their own beliefs and values and those of others in the light of their learning in religious education.

Experiences and opportunities

- encountering religion through visitors and visits to places of worship, and focusing on the impact of religion on the local and global community
- discussing religious and philosophical questions, giving reasons for their own beliefs and those of others
- considering a range of human experiences and feelings
- reflecting on their own and others' insights into life and its origin, purpose and meaning
- expressing and communicating their own and others' insights into life through art and design, music, dance, drama and ICT
- developing the use of ICT, particularly in enhancing pupils' awareness of religions and beliefs globally.

B10 STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY

KEY STAGE 3

Introduction

These units take the form of a key question followed by a series of supplementary questions which provide the shape and structure of the individual unit. Taken collectively the units provide an important balance between AT1 and AT2 and ensure full coverage of the six areas of enquiry.

The characteristics of learning listed at the end of this section highlight the essence of RE at Key stage 3 and the opportunities/experiences provide guidance on learning activities. At Key Stage 3 and 4 it is particularly important that curriculum time is found for Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview such as Humanism to be studied in depth.

Each unit is followed by the MINIMUM expected learning outcomes. Pupils will usually learn much more than this in their RE, but there is a core of knowledge, understanding and skills that should be achieved if further progress is to be made. Note that Christianity is mentioned in each unit, but that learning about and from Christianity is not a compulsory part of each and every unit.

Examples of how pupils might demonstrate whether they are below, within, secure or exceeding each statement are given in the AMV Learning Outcomes documents.

It is recommended that pupils are given feedback on how well they are doing in RE in relation to these statements. The statements can also be used to indicate what pupils need to do next in order to make progress. Items in square brackets within the Learning Outcomes statements need not be covered in that particular unit of study.

It is also recommended that teachers give feedback to pupils on the attitudes shown to their learning in RE. For example, do they grow in confidence about their own beliefs and identity? Do they reflect on what they are learning and use empathy and imagination? Do they look beyond surface impressions and search for meaning in life? Do they listen carefully to the views of others and consider evidence and argument? Do they recognise the needs and concerns of others? Do they appreciate that people's beliefs are often deeply felt? Do they develop a balanced sense of self-worth and value?

1. What experiences and beliefs are important to me and to others? [A&D]

This unit explores ideas of what it is to be human and relates them to religious and other beliefs

- (a) What makes human beings special?
- (b) What do we mean by the human spirit?
- (c) Why is prayer, reflection and contemplation important for some people?
- (d) What do we mean by religious experience?
- (e) What do I think about the value and purpose of human beings?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS3:

Religions & Worldviews a: give different views on how faith may play a vital part in people's identity;

And d: use reasoning and examples to express insights into the relationship between beliefs, teaching and ethical issues;

Christianity c: suggest reasons for different understandings of the resurrection of Jesus that Christians hold and show how they may have an impact on Christians today;

Other religion/worldview a: describe and compare different interpretations of religious identity;

Throughout: use reasoning and examples to express their own views on how Christianity and other the tradition(s) being studied have affected the world.

2. Does our planet have a future? [B&E]

This unit explores the purposes of life on earth which are reflected in the pattern of religious and other practices/lifestyles

- (a) What attitudes do people have towards the environment?
- (b) Do animals matter and how should they be treated?
- (c) What do religions and beliefs say about conservation and stewardship?
- (d) How do religions and beliefs reflect the preciousness of the world in some of their festivals and celebrations?
- (e) Are things getting better or worse for the environment? Why?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS3:

Religions & Worldviews c: ask questions about the meaning of religion and spirituality and suggest answers relating to the search for truth;

And d: use reasoning and examples to express insights into the relationship between beliefs, teaching and ethical issues;

Christianity c: explain the challenges of the Christian principles of love, forgiveness and trust in God with reference to key texts;

Other religion/worldview b: explain how and why people express beliefs, values and ideas of spirituality through ceremonies, festivals and other creative ways;

Throughout: use reasoning and examples to express their own views on how Christianity and other the tradition(s) being studied have affected the world.

4. What can we learn from religions, beliefs and communities today? [B&D]

This unit explores ideas of those aspects of human nature which relate to religious practices, communities and celebrations

- (a) What is the impact of religion and beliefs in the:
- local community
 - wider area in and around Somerset
 - diversity of the UK
 - global community
- (b) Why does hatred and persecution sometimes happen and what can be done to prevent it? (Focus on the Holocaust and subsequent genocides)
- (c) If religion did not exist who would miss it? Can religions and beliefs support people in difficult times?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS3:

Religions & Worldviews a: give different views on how faith may play a vital part in people's identity;

And d: use reasoning and examples to express insights into the relationship between beliefs, teaching and ethical issues;

Christianity a: describe and compare ways in which different Christian groups express their identity;

Other religion/worldview d: explain why some people are inspired to follow a particular religious or philosophical path;

Throughout: use reasoning and examples to express their own views on how Christianity and other the tradition(s) being studied have affected the world.

5. How are religions and beliefs portrayed in the media? [C&E]

This unit explores how big questions of faith and truth are portrayed in a variety of media

- (a) Is reporting in the local and national press, radio and television on religion and beliefs fair and accurate?
- (b) How do religious groups use the media today? What are the potential benefits and problems of this? (E.g. Internet, television, radio, press and arts)
- (c) What criteria can we use to analyze the portrayal of religion and beliefs in the media?
- (d) How would I portray religion and beliefs through a variety of media?

Minimum Learning Outcomes (below / within / secure / exceeding/mastery) for KS3:

Religions & Worldviews b: give different views on the place of modern media in relation to religion and belief;

And d: use reasoning and examples to express insights into the relationship between beliefs, teachings and ethical issues;

Christianity b: explain how and why examples of creativity may express or challenge Christian beliefs about the Fall, redemption and salvation;

Other religion/worldview b: explain how and why people express beliefs, values and ideas of spirituality through ceremonies, festivals and other creative ways;

Throughout: use reasoning and examples to express their own views on how Christianity and other the tradition(s) being studied have affected the world.

Characteristics of learning

Throughout Key Stage 3, students extend their understanding of Christianity plus THREE religions/worldviews from Buddhism, Hinduism, Humanism, Islam, Judaism and Sikhism in local, national and global contexts. Over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, studies are made of Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview such as Humanism. They also revisit prior learning in RE, applying their learning to the key themes being studied. They deepen their understanding of important beliefs, concepts and issues of truth and authority in religion. They apply their understanding of religious and philosophical beliefs, teachings and practices to a range of ultimate questions and moral issues. They enquire into and explain some personal, philosophical, theological and cultural reasons for similarities and differences in religious beliefs and values, both within and between religions. They consider how the media portray religion in the modern world. They develop their evaluative skills, showing reasoned and balanced viewpoints, when considering their own and others' responses to religious and spiritual issues. They reflect on the impact of religion and belief in the world, considering both the importance of inter-faith dialogue and also the tensions that exist within and between religions. They interpret religious texts and other sources, recognizing both the power and limitations of language and other forms of communication in expressing ideas and beliefs.

Experiences and opportunities

- encountering people from different religious, cultural and philosophical groups, who can express a range of convictions on religious and moral issues
- visiting, where possible, places of major religious significance and using opportunities in ICT to enhance students' understanding of religion
- discussing, questioning and evaluating important issues in religion and philosophy, including ultimate questions and ethical issues
- reflecting upon and carefully evaluating their own beliefs and values and those of others in response to their learning in religious education, using reasoned, balanced arguments
- using a range of forms of expression (e.g. art, dance, drama and creative writing) to communicate their ideas and responses creatively and thoughtfully
- exploring the connections between religious education and other subject areas, such as the arts, humanities, literature, science.

B11 STATUTORY PROGRAMMES OF STUDY FOR 14-19: THE AWARDING STAGE

14 – 19 is the awarding stage in that the central means of assessing students' learning in RE will be through accredited courses (mainly GCSE and AS/A level). It is both a legal requirement and an entitlement that all students (other than those withdrawn by parental request) study RE at Key Stage 4. RE is also statutory post-16 for students in school sixth forms. It is expected that all students who are capable of achieving an approved qualification in RE are given the opportunity to do so. At Key Stage 4 students are encouraged to take accredited courses which link with the designated programmes of study and give a particular emphasis to the study of complex philosophical and ethical issues and the ability of students to develop thoughtful, well substantiated conclusions to their learning in RE.

Characteristics of Learning

Over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, studies are made of Christianity, Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview such as Humanism. Throughout this phase, students analyse and interpret a wide range of religious, philosophical and ethical concepts in increasing depth. They investigate issues of diversity within and between religions and beliefs, and the ways in which religion and spirituality are expressed in philosophy, ethics, science and the arts. They expand and balance their evaluations of the impact of religions on individuals, communities and societies, locally, nationally and globally. They understand the importance of dialogue between and among different religions and beliefs. They gain a greater understanding of how religions and beliefs contribute to community cohesion, recognizing the various perceptions people have regarding the role of religion in the world.

PROGRAMMES OF STUDY:

KEY STAGE 4

Introduction

At Key Stage 4, the programme of study will focus on Christianity and at least ONE other religion, which may have been studied at Key Stage 3. Over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole, illustrative examples should be taken from Buddhism, Sikhism and a non-religious worldview such as Humanism. In addition, any programme of study should include issues related to pupils' spiritual and moral development.

At Key Stage 4, pupils' knowledge and understanding should focus particularly on the concepts, beliefs and values of religions in relation to their own. There should be less emphasis on knowing outward elements of religion - the objects used in worship, buildings, festivals, etc., except with reference to a religion not previously encountered. Pupils should develop an understanding of how the beliefs, values and concepts are exemplified through the elements of religion. Pupils should also be comparing the teachings of religions on key moral and metaphysical questions.

EXAMINATION AND CERTIFICATION

Key stage 4 pupils should follow at least one of the following courses:

- ◆ GCSE Full Course in Religious Studies;
- ◆ GCSE Short Course in Religious Studies;
- ◆ Entry Level Certificate in Religious Studies.

Alternatively, where appropriate (in particular for special schools), pupils may follow one of the following courses:

- ◆ The Award Scheme of the Development and Accreditation Network, (ASDAN) Beliefs and Values Short Course: <http://www.asdan.org.uk/courses/programmes/beliefs-and-values-short-course>);
- ◆ OCR Accreditation for Life and Living Skills (ALL) certificate for pupils who have severe or profound and multiple learning difficulties.

Teachers should ensure in ALL cases that the Key Stage 4 requirements in this syllabus are being met, in particular, the requirement for Key Stage 4 students to study Christianity plus at least ONE other religion, and for there to be teaching about a non-religious worldview such as Humanism over Key Stages 3 and 4 as a whole.

PROGRAMMES OF STUDY:

POST-16

Introduction

The aims of RE given in the Introduction to this Syllabus apply to post-16 provision. Post-16 RE needs to be carefully planned take account of the need for breadth and balance, differentiation, assessment and reporting, progression (especially from Key Stage 4), and the promotion of important skills and positive attitudes and contribution to broader learning opportunities, e.g., critical thinking.

It should also take account of the following:

- ◆ the wide range of ability, interests and experience of post-16 students;
- ◆ the fact that these students are in post-compulsory education;
- ◆ the variety of one-year and two-year courses being followed;
- ◆ the availability of a wide range of examination courses in RE and Religious Studies (RS) (e.g. A Level, A/S level, Full and Short-Course GCSE), Philosophy (e.g. with philosophy of religion options), General Studies, Psychology and Sociology (giving the opportunity to look at the psychology or sociology of religion);
- ◆ specific extension topics which may be suitable for post-16 students, e.g., Spirituality and Belief, Religion and Philosophy, Religion and the Media, Religion in the Community, which contribute to other qualifications (General Studies, Critical Thinking Skills);
- ◆ GNVQ & BTEC courses may also allow for the delivery of some aspects of RE;
- ◆ the potential of RE to enhance and broaden the post-16 curriculum and to support and complement other subjects.

Post-16 RE provides opportunities for discussion of spiritual, philosophical and ethical issues. It should therefore contribute to the spiritual and moral development of students.

Legal Requirements

The legal requirement is that all registered pupils in Community and Voluntary Controlled schools are to receive RE in accordance with a locally agreed syllabus. This includes schools with post-16 students. Voluntary Aided schools should follow the advice of their religious authorities.

Note that pupils over 16 can opt out of collective worship if they wish, but they cannot opt themselves out of receiving RE unless they are over 18.

To meet the expectations of this agreed syllabus schools and colleges will need to provide the equivalent of two to three days per year (10-15 hours).

This allocation is significantly lower than that given for Key Stages 1-4 and takes account of the particular situation of post-16 students. Appropriate staffing and resources will still be required.

There are a number of ways in which post-16 RE might be delivered. The expectations of the Agreed Syllabus will be fulfilled if a student is following an examination course in religious studies at A level. Further provision could be made through:

- ◆ discrete RE courses such as those listed for Key Stage 4 pupils [as above], or A/S level in Religious Studies;
- ◆ self-supported study in non-contact or tutor time linked to a religious education theme;
- ◆ an ongoing investigation, with a summative presentation or product;
- ◆ RE units within Complementary/Enrichment/Vocational Studies (which might be specifically designed to support examination courses in other subjects);
- ◆ General Studies courses which include sufficient religious education to meet the requirements;
- ◆ RE study days/post-16 conferences.

Consideration might be given to the potential benefits of the following within the above: lively and relevant course content; interesting course titles; variety and choice of options; provision of notes to maximise time for discussion; flexible timetabling; a wide variety of stimuli including visiting speakers; the involvement of staff from other disciplines; consultation with students to discover topics of interest.

Wherever possible reporting of student attainment in RE should be undertaken. For example, through a tutor's report on a student's presentation following an investigative project. It is recognised that if all RE provision is made, for example, through conference days, it would be difficult to comment on the attainment of each individual student. However, it would be possible to report on the experience which students have received and their participation. It may also be possible to comment on particular contributions by some students.

Planning should take into account the six Areas of Enquiry in RE which inform the Agreed Syllabus.
