be listened to by the adults working with them.

When we meet with a child or young person, we will keep these five promises

Our promises

We will respect
you for who you are

We will listen
to what you say

We will share
our decisions
with you

We will help you understand
decisions that we make

We will let you know what will happen
next.

The adults working with you want to do the best job.
You have five 'rights' to help you feel more confident to ask questions , so that they can support you.

Your rights

The right to be treated fairly

The right to have a say.

The right to make some choices.

The right to information you
can understand

The right to know how your views were used.
